

PROPOSALS

OF THE

DUBLIN INSURANCE COMPANY,

FOR

Insuring HOUSES and other BUILDINGS, GOODS, WARES, and MERCHANDIZES,
From Loss or Damage by FIRE.

WHEREAS the Insuring from Loss or Damage by Fire, tends to the Preservation of many Families from that Poverty and Ruin, which such a dreadful Calamity might otherwise expose them to.

THEREFORE a Number of Persons, whose Names are undermentioned, have associated under the Title of, THE DUBLIN INSURANCE COMPANY AGAINST FIRE, and have subscribed a Sum of Eighty Thousand Pounds, ster. as an ample Security to the Public; by virtue whereof, they insure Houses and Buildings, Household Furniture, (Wearing Apparel by Special Agreement), Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, (except Glass and China-ware not in Trade, and excepting all Manner of Writings, Books of Account, Notes, Bills, Bonds, Tallies, Ready Money, Jewels, Plate, Pictures, Gunpowder, Hay, Straw, and Corn unthreshed) from Loss or Damage by Fire, upon the following Terms and Conditions, viz.

I.

THIS Company will insure upon any Building, having Walls of Brick or Stone, and covered with Slate, Tile, Lead, or Copper, and wherein none of the hazardous Trades or Goods, hereafter specified, are carried on or deposited; and upon Goods and Merchandize, being the property of the Insured, in any Brick or Stone Building, covered with Slate, Tile, Lead, or Copper, (except such hazardous Goods as are hereafter specified), any of the Sums mentioned in the following Table, at the annual Premiums set down under the Head of Common Insurance, in the Table, Number I.

II.

HAZARDOUS Trades, such as Apothecaries, Colour Men, Bread and Biscuit Bakers, Ship and Tallow-Chandlers, Oil-Men, Stable-Keepers, Inn-holders, Brewers, and Malsters; and hazardous Goods, as Hemp, Flax, Tallow, Pitch, Tar, Oil, and Turpentine; such Trades carried on, or such Goods deposited in Brick or Stone Buildings, covered with Slate, Tile, Lead, or Copper, are to pay the annual Premium set down under the Head of Hazardous Insurance, as in the Table, Number II. And Timber or Plaster Buildings, so covered, wherein none of the aforesaid hazardous Trades are carried on, nor any of the aforesaid hazardous Goods are deposited, and also houses set in Tenements, are to be at the same Rate.

III.

ANY of the aforesaid hazardous Trades carried on, or hazardous Goods deposited in Timber or Plaster Buildings, Earthen, Glass or China Ware, in Trade, are to pay the annual Premium set down under the Head of Doubly Hazardous Insurances, as in the Table, Number III.

IV.

DEAL-YARD, Cotton-Factories, Flour-Mills; also Chymists, Distillers, Sugar-Bakers, or any other Insurances, more than ordinarily hazardous, by Reason of the Trade, Situation, or other dangerous Circumstances, may be made by special Agreement.

V.

ANY Number of Houses or Buildings, with the Goods therein, may be insured in one policy, provided that, in that Case, the sum insured on each risk is particularly specified in the policy.

VI.

No Policy is to be of any Force until the full Premium for the Term insured is paid, and the Company's Receipt for the same delivered. Each Insurance to expire at Six o'Clock in the Evening of, the last Day of said Term.

VII.

For each Policy the Insured is to pay Four Shillings and Sixpence, and for each Indorsement of Transfer One Shilling.

VIII.

ON all Buildings insured by this Company, there will be affixed the Figure of THREE CASTLES, for each of which Figures the insured is to pay Two Shillings and Sixpence.

IX.

PERSONS already insured in any other Office or Company, upon changing to this Company shall have their Policies and Figures gratis.

X.

When any Person Insured by this Company shall die, the Interest in said Insurance shall continue with the Person to whom the Right therein shall legally devolve, provided that on the making the next Payment of Premium such person do procure his or her right to be specified in the Company's Receipt for the same.

XI.

HOUSES Transferred by Sale, or otherwise, may preserve their insurance, provided the Transferee gets his or her Name indorsed and acknowledged by the Company on the Back of the Policy.

XII.

To prevent Frauds, Persons insured by this Office shall not receive any Benefit by such Insurance, in Case the same Risk is insured in any other Office or Company, unless the same be specified and allowed by an Indorsement on the Back of the Policy, in which Case this Company will pay its rateable Proportion on any Loss or Damage.

XIII.

If any Person or Persons shall Insure his, her, or their Houses, Goods, &c. otherwise than as they really are, or shall cause the same to be improperly described in the Policy, so as in any wise to deceive the Company, and thereby procure such Insurance at an Under-rate of Premium; in that Case, such Insurance shall be of no Force whatsoever, nor shall the Person so fraudulently Insuring receive any Benefit therefrom in Case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

XIV.

Goods on Commission may be insured, provided they be specified in the Policy as such.

XV.

If more than Ten Pounds Weight of Gun-powder shall be kept in any of the Premises insured, in such Case the Policy to be void.

XVI.

ANY Losses that may appear to have occurred thro' Fraud or Design are not to be made good, but the Policy to be void.

XVII.
THE Company are not to be liable to make good any Loss or Damage by Fire, happening by any Invasion from a foreign Enemy, civil Commotion, or any military or usurped Power whatsoever.

XVIII.
In Case of Fire, to prevent the spreading thereof, this Company to have a Right to pull down any Building insured by them, paying the Insured the Damage occasioned thereby.

XIX.
All Persons insured by this Company will be paid the full amount of any Loss, not under the Sum of Five pounds, not exceeding the Sum insured, deducting only Three Pounds per Cent.

XX.
The Company are at Liberty to pay the value insured on Buildings destroyed or damaged by Fire, or to repair the same with all convenient Speed; Glazing, Painting, or Sculpture excepted; and in adjusting Losses, no Waincot or carved Work is to be valued at more than Three Shillings per Yard, nor Chimney-piece at higher than Ten Pounds.

XXI.
ALL Losses or Damages sustained by Buildings insured with

To encourage the removal and preservation of Goods in Cases of Fire, this Company will allow the reasonable Charges attending the same, and make good the Sufferer's Loss, whether destroyed, lost, or damaged by such removal.
